

Hattstedt

Hattstedt is a beautiful village in the north of Germany. It has about 2,500 inhabitants and is located about 40 km from Denmark, 6 km to Husum and only 2.5 km from the North Sea.

The cultural life of Hattstedt is very active. This has always contributed to the success of former music festivals.

13th International Music Festival

In 2019 the Spielmannszug Hattstedt is presenting its 13th International Music Festival and is expecting various bands and spectators to celebrate this event.

In 2011, 2013 and 2016 the band was able to welcome at both events more than 1,000 musicians and about 30 bands from e.g. Mexico, Bulgaria, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Hungary, Poland and Germany. Additionally to these musicians came many spectators to see the performances of the bands and to rejoice in an unforgettable weekend of music, entertainment and friendship.

There will be a big party in the gymnasium for all participating bands and guests on Saturday night. This party and also the rest of the weekend are great opportunities to get to know other bands and to start planning trips all over the world to establish long-lasting friendships.

All bands are welcome to extend their stay in Hattstedt after the Music Festival. We would be happy to assist in creating a fun recreational program, and to get the opportunity to get to know each other a little more.

Spielmannszug Hattstedt e.V.

The Spielmannszug Hattstedt was founded in 1984. Today it has over 70 active members.

The repertoire of the band is diverse; it includes marches but also classical music and a show.

The Spielmannszug Hattstedt is well known in Germany and abroad. Lots of different trips in Germany and all over Europe to play music, meet people and build up long-lasting friendships have been part of the concept of the band.

In 2006, the Spielmannszug Hattstedt made its first trip out of Europe to compete in the World Championship of Marching Show-Bands in Jeju/Southkorea. In 2008 they were even able to visit Beijing/China. In 2014, the band again participates in the World Championship of Marching Show-Bands. This time in Bragança/Brasil.

Nevertheless, the main interest of the band work is in the youth. Around the year there are several activities for players of all ages.

Info about the competition

Show competition

In the Show competition the bands have to present marching figures while playing music. Each show has to have a length of 10-15 minutes. The competition takes place at the Mikkelberg on a 70x40m big field.

Concert competition

In the concert competition the bands have to present two pieces of music. These are presented in front of a jury. A score needs to be handed in beforehand. The concert competition takes place in the gymnasium by the Jens-Iwersen-Schule.

Marching competition

In the marching competition the bands have to present two pieces of music while marching and one piece of music standing in front of a jury. The marching competition is also at the Mikkelberg.

Marching Parade

In this competition the bands can present their music and marching in an assigned field in 10-13 minutes. The difference to the marching competition is, that the band can choose their own steps and figures etc in the marked area.
